Sightseeing / Recreation

Whether you're looking for amateur or professional sports, the great outdoors or the pampered indoors, Phoenix has it all. You'll find Bank One Ball Park, which is home to the Arizona Diamondbacks, the Phoenix Symphony at Symphony Hall, live theater at The Orpheum and Herberger, fun and learning at the Arizona Science Center, and the Heard Museum which pays tribute to the Native American roots of the area. Just a short drive north and you can enjoy the Phoenix Zoo or the Desert Botanical Garden. Head a bit further north into Scottsdale and you can take in some of the Old West at Rawhide or try your luck at the Tournament Players Club course where in January, the Phoenix Open is played.

Airport Transportation

Complimentary airport transportation. If driving, take the Loop 202 East exit out of the terminal area. Exit Priest Drive and turn right onto Priest. Approximately 2 miles down is Broadway Road. The Fiesta Inn is just across Broadway Road on the right (the southwest corner of Priest and Broadway).

Parking

Free parking.
